

4

Wildflowers on Metal
By Dave Angle

Artist Statement: These photos of native flowers printed on metal and attached to discarded metal plates left from CNC laser cutting machines explores the interface between the delicate life and decay of dense metal creations. This work is intended to gain more insight into the integration of photography into creation of outdoor art.

Artist Biography: None Provided