

9

The Joy of Flight

By Shelley O'Connor

Artist Statement: I got inspiration for this piece watching the birds in the trees outside my windows

Artist Biography: I have always loved metal, and have a large collection of found, bought or gifted metal. During the pandemic I switched from large welded pieces to copper pieces that I can hold. I have no formal art education, I create through trial and error things that speak to me.