

Out of Our Gourds

By Terry Warthen, Kim Warthen, and Jenna Warthen

Artist Statement: I've been wanting to make a totem and what better material than gourds since I had a good crop last year. As the idea evolved to transform the gourds into wacky birds, my daughter Kim wanted to join in the fun. We pulled my daughter Jenna into the project and so it became a family collaboration.

"Hunk of Burnin' Love" (yellow gourd)
