

Building on the Past

By Paula Diane Relf

Artist Statement: There is a great deal of beauty to be found in off-cast, scraps and discards from many other projects. The old tin roofing from a 100+ year old log cabin has provided backdrop for several displays of art including outdoor metal prints. Its beauty has inspired me to integrate it into a piece that includes steel plates left from CNC plasma cutting.